

Managing Household Hazardous Waste

Storing Household Hazardous Products:

- Follow directions for storage on the label
 - Store hazardous household products in the original container
 - Keep metal containers dry to prevent corrosion
 - Store similar products together to reduce any danger from reactions if containers should leak or contents should spill
 - Store products away from children and pets
 - Store products away from any flammable materials or sources
-

Learn more about managing household hazardous waste at <http://www.beaverlakesmart.org/education/hazardous-household-waste/>

